

Since Indiana Law Passed the no call list the only calls I have to contend with are my teenagers friends. Before that we could expect five to ten calls per week from telemarketers. I feel I have right to not have these people call my home. If I want any of there services I will call them.